

The North American Society for Social Philosophy

34th International
Social Philosophy
Conference

Justice: Social, Criminal & Juvenile

July 13 to July 15, 2017
Loyola University
Chicago, Illinois, USA

Welcome. Just a few things before we begin.

We would like to remind you that our accessibility guidelines for the conference stipulate that under no circumstances may the lighting be changed in any of the rooms and that Powerpoint or other projected light may not be used unless your session is already specified on the printed program as one in which this sort of technology will be used. Chairs, it will be part of your job to make sure that presenters follow these guidelines during your sessions.

For chairs who are moderating sessions that are not marked on the program as containing Powerpoint or video, please make sure that projector screens are up and projectors are off at the beginning of the session and remain this way.

For chairs who are moderating sessions that are already marked on the program as containing Powerpoint or video, we ask that you make sure to turn off the overhead projector and put the projector screen up at the end of the presentation that is using this technology.

Presentations marked with one asterisk * are using Powerpoint.

Presentations marked with two asterisks  are Skyping in due to the Academic Boycott of International Conferences held in the US.
